

Time to consider:
words in ink,
color on paper,
stitches in fabric,
motion of the body,
prayers of the heart.

Meraki is workings of heart and soul,
head and hands and the time carved out to connect and consider.

With Meraki

A sleepover with art and soul for women November 15-17

With Meraki

It's a sleepover for women of all ages who like to laugh a lot, try something new, and pray in creative ways. And, no, you don't have to be an artist. You don't even need to be very creative. You're a work of art yourself. That's enough.

Local creative experts are excited to share their talents and coax some out of you, too.

Rev. Stephanie Patton leads intentional prayer times that loosely follow the divine hours. Short, guided pockets of time to center your soul and give you space to breathe.

With Meraki at Pinecrest Camp is Friday evening from supper until Sunday after worship and brunch.

Tuition

Single Occupancy (queen bed/private bath)	$400
Double Occupancy (queen or twin bed/shared bath)	$315
Quad Occupancy (twin bed/shared bath)	$225

Just for Clergy Women

Friday only 9a-5p

Dr. Mitzi Minor

Dr.
Mitzi
Minor

is the Mary Magdalene Professor of New Testament at Memphis Theological Seminary. Dr. Minor has authored two books and many articles on Mark as well as commentary on 2nd Corinthians. Lecturing and connecting today's Christians with NT texts is a great delight. Mitzi will help our clergy women prepare with study of the Advent lectionary passages.
